TEAM MANAGER RESPONSIBILITY

The following rules and responsibilities are for each manager in the FYBA program:

As manager I will:

Abide by and uphold the constitution that governs FYBA.

Attend FYBA board meetings on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month.

Ensure that myself, my coaches and the parents of my players will not attend games or any FYBA function at the Waterworks Park while under the influence of alcohol or while in possession of alcoholic products.

Ensure that all tobacco products are consumed outside the fenced areas that surround our baseball diamonds.

Discourage the use of profanity and admonish anyone for doing so.

Make it my objective to instill good sportsmanship, honesty, loyalty and courage into each of my players, coaches and parents, and to show them through my actions and words that these qualities are part of my character.

Treat each player equally with his/her peers.

Umpire the games assigned to me by my league vice president.

Pick up and return all equipment on time.

Participate in all fundraising efforts for FYBA (ie: Red's ticket vouchers, carnival, tournaments, etc)

Turn all lights on and off when my team uses such fields and return bases to their proper place.

Attend and require at least two other parents to attend and work my league's work party and tryouts. If I am a AABC team manager, I will ensure that my team completes all of our required work in a timely manner as determined by FYBA Board.

I, hereby acknowledge these commitments to my team and FYBA. By signing below, I certify that all information provided in this application is true to the best of my knowledge. I also give permission for FYBA and its Board of Directors to conduct a police background check on me. I understand failure to comply with any of the above can result in my removal as a manager.
